"THOSE WHO SAY IT CAN'T BE DONE, ARE USUALLY INTERRUPTED BY THOSE WHO ARE DOING IT." ANON.

Dear Astounding Class of 2005,

This year has been like an amazing ride for me and without a doubt for you as well! Time has really flown by. As you know this is my 3rd year as Principal of Cambridge Rindge & Latin and I'd like to think that together—we have made a positive difference! Like the New England Patriots and Boston red Sox, you too are champions! I say this because your talents and abilities to meet challenges have also exceeded the highest of expectations. Your talents have spanned from becoming voracious athletes, to outstanding academic achievers, to amazing concert musicians, to multi-talented actors—this Class of 2005 has made significant accomplishments. We all know that there is more to a person than being just ambitious—it is your ability to demonstrate compassion through the way in which you care for others, as well. Thus, your combined efforts in raising more than $7,000 for the victims of the Tsunami have shown your expansive compassion for those less fortunate. When this unexpected tragedy hit, CRLS Senior class officers and Student Government leaders banned together to devise a strategic plan to raise funds to assist and aid with the relief efforts. Together, we stood in the falling snow and endured the frigid temperatures asking for donations throughout the Cambridge community that would eventually help support the victims. CRLS Science teacher Jannani Nathan personally delivered those funds to an orphanage in Sri Lanka that provided direct services to children and families. Your work has been truly inspirational!

I will also be reminded of your valiant efforts to educate your peers and adults about other issues that were important and mattered most to you: AIDS, Domestic Violence, World Peace and most importantly respect for each other, and tolerance of differences.

I congratulate the Class of 2005 on your achievements. When others look upon these pages and see your faces, they will remember that this was a special time in Cambridge and in CRLS - a time of Champions!

May God bless and keep each of you and your families.

Legacy: Something that is handed down from a previous generation or time.

I have received an important legacy from my parents—one of love for family, a sense of service and responsibility to my community, and a respect for hard work. My daughter Lisette Williams (CRLS '00') chose to celebrate my late husband's and her father's legacy of humanitarism and anti-apartheid activism by creating the Ken Williams Scholarship Fund. Since its initial award in year 2000, the Ken Williams Scholarship has awarded $10,000 to students at CRLS and on Martha's Vineyard.

As I leave you, I hope that my work and diligence in developing student services and co-curricular activities will provide you with a foundation on which to build your future skills. As I say my goodbye to the Class of 2005 as your Assistant Principal and to all the students and classes that I have worked with since 1977 (when I began teaching at CRLS), I'll like to thank you all for the privilege of working with and serving you. It has been a thrill and a royal pleasure to do so.

Class of 2005, I have learned so very much from you as I watched you grow and change your school and community. You have challenged your peers to be more responsible and caring towards their school with poignant editorials on our problems with chicken bones and the milk machine. You've done amazing things in the classrooms and academic competitions, on the playing field and the stage, in the arts and in your technical programs, through community service here and in the larger community. Much is possible for you to accomplish as you go on your way..... to college, to work, to the military, to do community service, to start your own businesses, to marry, to parent, to vote, to continue to learn.

As you go to new places and become neighbors to the unfamiliar, know that CRLS is your home, your foundation, and your safe harbor, the port that you can always return to. Don't forget to share your growth and talents with us. The future classes of CRLS need a knowledgeable and active alumni who will return as teachers, coaches, mentors, and volunteers.

Special thanks to all those student leaders, club members and advisors that I had the pleasure to know, to service, and work with.

Until we meet again, stay strong, be true, stay focused on your goals, and help someone else along the way,

Love and success in your future, Ms. Hunter

P.S. All 28 years were great!

September 11th– The second week of our freshman year the world was changed, never to be the same again. During these last four years, many events have changed our lives and the course of history. From the U.S. going to war with Iraq to breaking the Bambino curse and winning the World Series after 86 years. These are the stories of our generation, that we'll tell our children and grandchildren. Without a doubt, our high school years were some of the most memorable and critical times of our lives. CRLS was home. The diversity of our school made it possible for all to feel welcomed. This was an incredible journey, one that I hope many of us will cherish forever.

Class of 2005, these are the memories.....

The class of 2005 would like to congratulate the Boston Red Sox on their victory. Thank you for making this a championship year for us.

Tsunami Relief

On December 26th, 2004, an undersea earthquake in the Indian Ocean generated the most disastrous Tsunami, and caused the death of over 228,000 people. Many CRLS students volunteered to raise over $7,000 to help those people whose homes, lands, and way of life were destroyed during this tragic incident. We thank these students for their compassion.

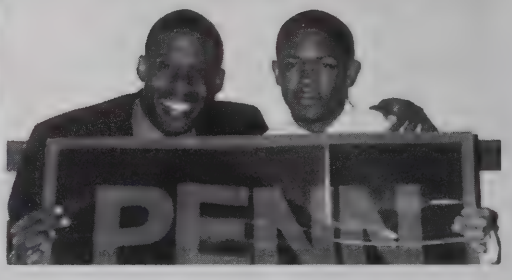
Minority Student Achievement/Leadership Conference



Minority Student Achievement/Leadership Conference which is held annually in different districts, is a wonderful opportunity for students of color to share their experiences and insights and learn new strategies for improving the academic achievement in their districts. Within these districts six high achieving minority students are chosen to represent their schools. The conference provides the adults in attendance, and MSAN at large, an opportunity to hear the voices of students.

This year MSAN conference was held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Princeton, New Jersey. At the conference we were privileged to hear inspirational keynote speaker, Carlotta Walls LaNier, who was a member of the Little Rock Nine. We were given a tour of Princeton Univ. and attended a regional college fair, where we met Admission Representatives from some of the top colleges and universities on the east coast. We also heard a presentation from the Educational Testing Services (ETS) about the future of the SAT. Our social time was spent networking with other students from around the country. We held a mini talent show, a dance off and listened to music while relaxing by the indoor pool. This experience was so wonderful, I will always remember it.

Academic Decathlon

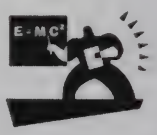
Academic Decathlon is a rigorous test of endurance in ten academics subjects, ranging from science to philosophy.

The Academic Decathlon team participates in a nationwide competition of high school students designed to promote and reward academic endeavors. This exciting competition greatly expands one's knowledge of the world around. Formal team competitions are held at the local, state and national levels, and all students are encouraged to prepare and try out for their individual school team and to remain involved by supporting their team's progress through the competitions. Advisors: Tom McCarthy (l) & Peter Mili (r)

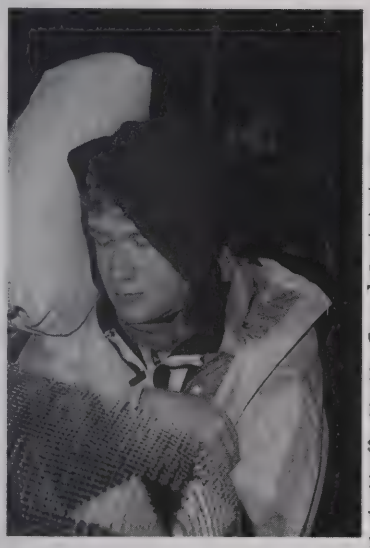


Animex

Animex teaches students who are interested in Japanese animations, the basic skills of drawing which enables them to produce their own creations. Each member creates a monthly art work and his/her own short cartoon for an exhibition in the school. These projects are then combined into a small book for other students to purchase.

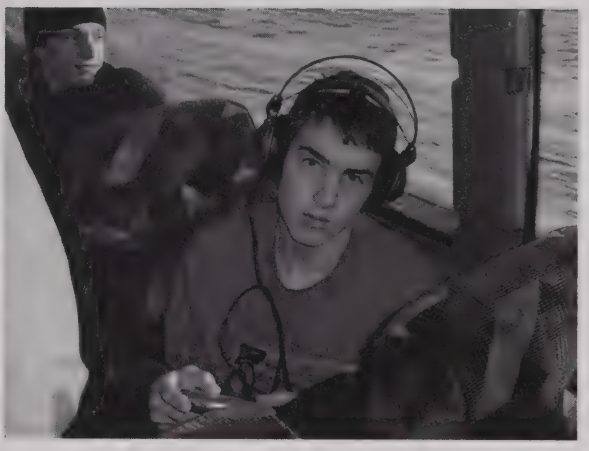
Members also examine professional animation movies and various techniques used to enhance personal skills. The club teaches basic Japanese linguistics and as a whole opens a new door of interest and appreciation for Japanese culture. Advisor: Jessica Young

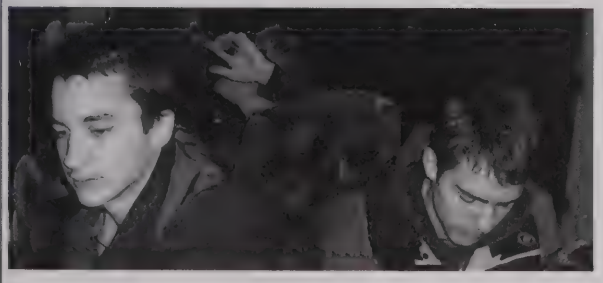
Alpine Ski Club

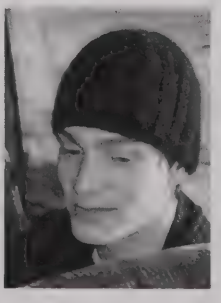


The Ski Club has been in existence for over 20 years at CRLS.~ It is one of the largest clubs in the school with approximately 100 members.~ To date, the Ski Club has gone on over 12,500 skier days, taking 4-5 trips annually to northern Vermont.~ The club spends a lot of time fundraising to keep the cost of the trips down. This year, we will be going on five one-day trips to Sugarbush, VT, between December and March.

Advisor:
Jon Baring-Gould







Amnesty International

The Club is dedicated to supporting the work of the global human rights organizations. We are involved in letter writing campaigns, vigils, etc. Our work also deals with freeing political prisoners and victims of human rights violations. We work to fight injustice around the world. Co-Presidents: Marianna Tu & Kailah-Hayden-Karp. Officers: Jessica Hong & Laura Snedeker.

Advisor: Damon Smith

Asian Club

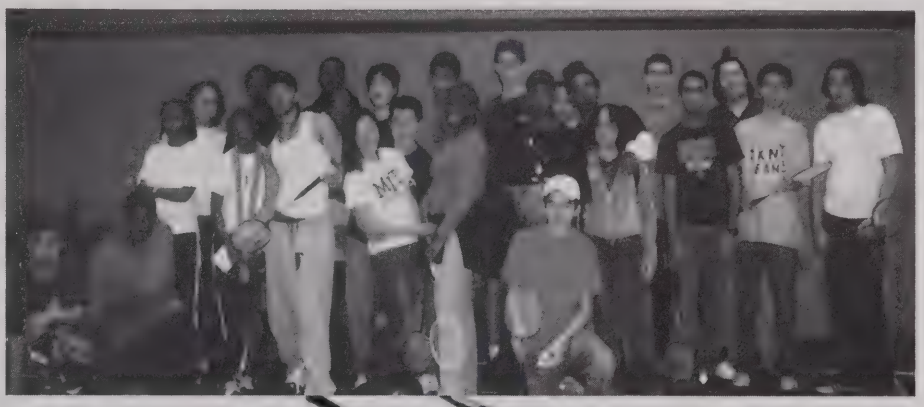
All students of CRLS are welcome to join the Asian Club. The Asian Club gathers students from different nationalities and enjoys doing club activities together. Our goal is to have a good time and become friends while studying at CRLS.

The Asian Club holds fundraising activities which are used sponsor group activities such as: movies, Dim Sum in Chinatown, field trips and social affairs designed by the members to gain a more sophisticated appreciation of the Asian culture.

Advisor: Peter Ho

Badminton Club

Students learn about playing and appreciating the sport of Badminton.



The club meets everyday during fall and spring between the athletic seasons. Tournaments are held in the spring for singles and doubles play for boys and girls.

Advisors: Cheryl Haug & Jon Chen

Boston Society of Civil Engineers

The Boston Society of Civil Engineers identifies, encourages, motivates and academically prepares African American, Hispanics, and Native American students to pursue degrees in business, engineering, mathematics, and science based field trips.

The goal is to increase the participation of historically underrepresented groups in science and technology to help meet the needs of American industry, business and education in the 21st century. The club also participates in several competitions. Each year, at least two CRLS students are awarded full tuition scholarships by participating colleges. Advisors: Roy Carter & Conrad Hauck

BYOP
Boston Youth Organizing Project

The CRLS BYOP group is an organization of youth, lead by youth, and supported by adults. BYOP seeks to increase youth power and create social change. BYOP builds relationships across differences, trains & develops leaders, identifies key issues of concern to youth, and takes action for justice.

Chess Club

The Chess Club is all about learning how to play and enjoy playing chess. The Chess Club hopes to re-establish championship chess back to CRLS.

Advisor: Vadim Martiroso

Creative Writing

The Creative Writing/Literature Club focuses upon the creative writing of students in CRLS. Students write and share their own writings during club hours.

The goal of the club is to have fun and to celebrate the original writings of our members. Students create a publication of their original writing and a website that publishes their writings.

Advisors: Jesse diamond & Larry Mayer

Cultural Identity

Students from different cultures and backgrounds comes together to, learn about each others culture, respect differences, bring cultures to life and to unite together as one.

Through out the year, the members get together and learn through fun and activities such as: watching movies, fieldtrips, playing games, eating different foods and much more.

Advisor: Vaughn Simkins

Haitian Club

The Haitian Club promotes Haitian history and culture in the CRLS, the Cambridge community, and throughout New England. The club seeks to educate Haitians and non-Haitians alike about the richness and beauty of the Haitian culture through in-school and citywide presentations.

The club participates annually in the Kwanzaa celebration, Black History Month events, Martin Luther King Day celebration, Haitian Flag Day, Nashoba Brook School, and the Haitian Parent Banquet.

Advisors: Yvon Lamour & Bernadette Desire

Ayiti!!

Hip Hop Club

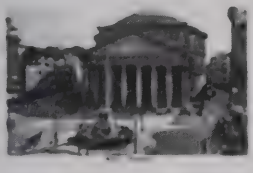
The purpose of the Hip Hop Club is to promote community in CRLS through the practice and participation of the four elements of Hip Hop: DJ'ing, break dancing, graffiti, and MC'ing. Students have the opportunity to either practice their skills in one or more of these four elements or to learn more about the history of Hip Hop.

Advisor: Ryan Alyward

Italian Club

The Italian Club includes speaking Italian and/or coaching students who would like to learn the language, sharing food, experiencing Italian music, movies, etc. The club takes field trips to the North End of Boston, acquaints students with the Dante Alighieri Society, watches tapes of real Italian programs broadcasted by RAI television, and shares experiences with students who have first hand knowledge of Italian.

Advisor: Michela Tobin



Latin Club

The Latin Club is an academic and social club for Latin students at CRLS. It is also a chapter member of the Massachusetts Junior Classical League (MJCL) and the National Junior Classical League (NJCL). The Latin Club meets regularly to plan for Certamen, the Latin language, history, culture, mythology quiz games, and to practice for the competitive events. The members participate in website contests and community service projects. The club activities include: going out and enjoying Roman food, visiting local museums and viewing historically appropriate movies. Advisor: Maria Giacchino

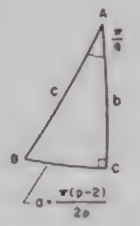
Latino Club

The mission of the Latino club is to encourage Latino students to actively participate in the school community on issues that affect students by getting involved in extra-curricular activities that will contribute to their growth as leaders and to the well-being of the community. The club encourages unity by creating relationships inside and outside the school by working with administrators and teachers to reach our goals. Activities include lectures, poetry readings, dancing, movies, field trips to movies and cultural activities.
Advisor: Juan Casillas

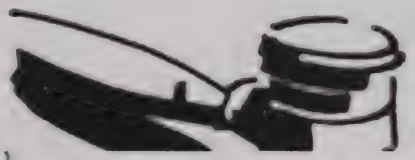
Math Team

The Math Team participates in the New England Math League, the Greater Boston Math League, Harvard-MIT National Math Tournament, AMC 10/12 and many others.. It is a great opportunity for students to challenge themselves in math... for fun and for the thrill of victory!

Advisor: Joel Patterson



Mock Trial



Students learn about basic courtroom procedures as described by the guidelines to the Mock Trial Competition that is sponsored by the MA Bar Association.

The Mock Trial Team participates in a state competition with over 100 high schools. They work on a case that has been prepared by the Massachusetts Bar Association and are judged on their performance as lawyers and witnesses.

Advisor: Roz Grunman

Model United Nations

The Model United Nations Club is an international student organization where members participate and engage in debate and discussion on the most pressing issues on the international agenda. As delegates of member countries represented in the United Nations, club members learn the skills required to negotiate as diplomats in the United Nations system.

Through the fun of Scrabble, students can expand and sharpen their vocabulary, ultimately leading to more intelligent speaking and writing.

Advisor: Derrick Jackson

Spanish Club

Students enjoy speaking Spanish in an informal but authentic environment. Activities include making holiday cards and food, and watching movies in Spanish, etc. One rule is that Spanish is the language of communication. All levels of students are welcome. Advisor: Sherry Madden

Student Government/School Council

CRLS's Student Government promotes student initiative and involvement within the school and community-related affairs with the ultimate purpose of developing leaders who will represent the student body at large and their ideas.

This year's activities included the Halloween Costume contest, the Sweetheart Dance, the Talent Showcase and lots of Fundraising.

Advisors: Annie Brown & Mia Gittlen

STARs

Students Teaching and Advocating Respect (STARs) is a course taught at CRLS titled "Leadership and Community Action". It's goal is to provide students with a comfortable arena to discuss, debate, and honestly confront contemporary issues affecting their lives. Such topics may include relationship violence, sexual harassment, domestic abuse, HIV/AIDS and substance abuse.

Students receive skill training that enhances their leadership development and prepares them as Peer Educators. After training sessions, each STAR is responsible for teaching curricula to younger students. STARs also organizes the annual "Seeking Solutions" Violence Prevention conference with assemblies and workshops opened to the entire school community on a variety of topics , and an annual Holiday party for homeless families.

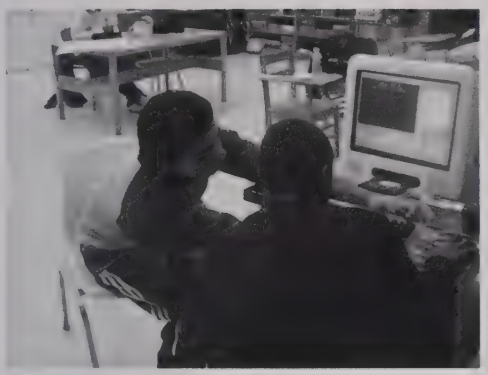
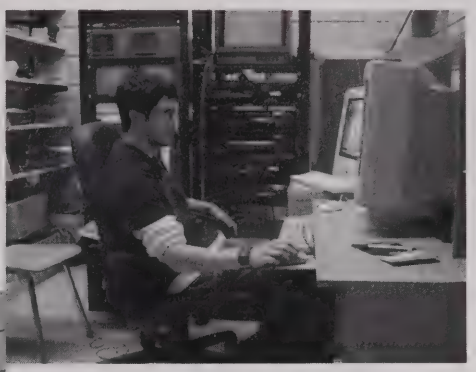
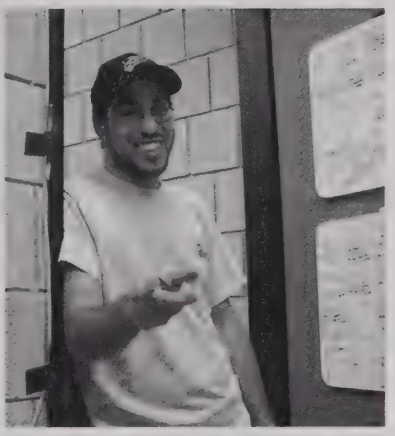
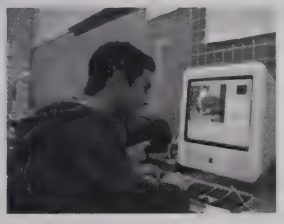
Channel 98/95







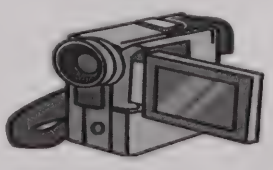
Cambridge Educational Access operates Channel 98/95. There you will see an electronic bulletin board loaded with information vital to students and their families. Also you'll find the Sports Media Program which records and cablecasts a game of the week from one of CRLS Sports Teams' competition. Other shows includes the School Committee meeting and teen produced programming.



Video Club

Students learn how to use video cameras and produce their own works.

In addition to collaboring with CCTV and hosting festivals of CRLS student works, the Video Club will host the "Do It Your Damn Self!! 10th Annual National Youth Video and Film Festival featuring youth-produced videos from around the country.



And now, The 2005 Yearbook Committee

These yearbook pages are dedicated to those students and adults who not only thought it was important to have a yearbook, but who made a commitment to ensuring that it was a product we could all be proud of. It is because of them that I remain eternally optimistic that indeed there will be brighter days.

This page is my opportunity to thank, on your behalf, the people who without them, none of this would be possible.

The students, Mirian Alvarez for her boundless enthusiasm, Fatema Farhana for her dedicated work on Sports and Senior Portraits, Yi Fei Wu and Julia Smith for their work on Arts Pages, Nathalie Andre for her work on Club Pages, Katherine Melendez, Chanthyna Chhay, Jobaida Rahman, Harriet Agu, Monica Gamez & Nick Haycock, for doing so many of the little things that made the whole thing come together.

The adults, Mrs. Hickey, who has always been a source of encouragement and support. Judith Contucci and the Art Department, Kris Kay & Steve Ferguson from RSTA, and particularly John Samp who provided many of the faculty pictures and Larry Aaronson who provide many of the sports and school pictures you've seen in this book. I still see him bouncing down the hallway, saying I got pictures, do you want them, and we always answered, 'yes'. Their help has been invaluable.

Two people who have made this year special are Assistant Principal Ms. Hunter, who has worked hard to provide yearbook with the resources needed to develop as a student directed and involved activity. Because of her efforts the class of 2005 has an office, computers and has help to develop in the student body a sense of responsibility, ownership and pride in the development and creation of the yearbook.

Not known to many of you is Ms. Michele Blanc, from Harvard University. She has been the moving force behind the establishment of the Yearbook Senior raffle. She has worked to ensure its success now and in the future to reduce the cost of the yearbook and as an opportunity for seniors to earn money to reduce their graduation expenses.

To the both of them, we say, Thank You, and may you always be blessed, as you have blessed us.

We like to thank all those seniors who cared enough about the school, their experience here and this yearbook to want their picture in it. We hope you like it and that it becomes a source of pride for you.

* Yes, we know this is out of place, we got it too late to place it correctly.

I'm taking a survey of prison conditions. How would you rate the torture here? Poor, good, or excellent?"

Senior Survey

Out of 10 seniors who submitted the survey:

1. On a scale of 10, 60% rated the school 7 .

2. If the you were the principal: 60% would make the lunch time and the time between classes onger; 20% would keep the small learning communities; 20% would keep the short Tuesday and Thursday.

3. About our school lunch: 20% said it's O.K.; 20% said it's stinks; 10% said it's too expensive.

4. 70% have fallen asleep during a class; 20% have fallen asleep during a test; 20% have fallen asleep in the library; 20% fell asleep with their eyes open.

5. 50 % said their best year in CRLS is their senior year; 30% said freshman and sophomore year were fun; 20 % said academically speaking, junior year was the best.

6. 60% said their favorite classes were in the Visual and Performing Arts department; 10% said they like the classes in RSTA; 20% said their favorite classes are in the Social Studies department.

7. What's your favorite part of the day: 40% said lunch; 30% said dismissal.

8. Unfortunately, none of the seniors had enough courage to admit they were responsible for the fire alarms over the years.

9. Teachers who were listed as favorite teachers: Ms. Robin Litwin (Arts), Ms. Jessy Young (Arts), Mr. Paul Frassa, Ms. Joyce Vandernoot (OSE), Ms. Laura Mosman (English), Mrs. Leslie Mili (Math), Mr. Anthony Cicerone (Social Studies), Mr. Larry Aaronson (Social Studies)

10. 70% voted in the class election.

11. 100% said they will buy our beloved Year Book!!!

12. 50% said the best thing about senior year is graduation and getting out of the school; 20% said the best thing is the authority over underclassmen.

13. 60% will go to college after high school; 20% will go to art school.

14. If you were Mr. Bush: 30% said they would end the war; 20% said change health care; 30% said tax the rich.

15. About the war in Iraq: 30% predicted that it will end in 5 years; 20% said it will end in 1 year; and 20% said it will never end.

16. 50% stayed up late to watch the Red Sox games; 50% believed they were going to win.

Here we are taking the big Picture..!

Another turning point; a fork stuck in the road.
Time grabs you by the wrist; directs you where to go.
So make the best of this test and don't ask why.
It's not a question but a lesson learned in time.
It's something unpredictable but in the end it's right.
I hope you had the time of your life.

Time to say goodbye.....

How do I say good bye to what we had,
The good times that made us laugh outweigh the bad,
I thought we'd get to see forever but forever's gone away,
It so hard to say goodbye to yesterday,

I don't know where this road is going to lead,
All I know is where we've been and what we've been through,
If we get to see tomorrow I hope it's worth all the wait,
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday,

And I'll take with me the memories to be my sunshine after the rain,
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday,

-Boyz II Men
